

APPLICATION FORM

SECTORAL AND BRANDED DATA

Thank you for your interest in applying for GFLI sectoral or branded data!

To apply for sectoral or branded data compliant with the GFLI methodology, please fill in the following application form.

If you're interested in getting sectoral or branded data compliancy with the GFLI methodology, please fill in the following application form. An incomplete form will not be accepted.

For more information, reach out to info@globalfeedlca.org.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Applying party

Main contact during data process (add e-mail)

Main contact after data validation (add e-mail)

Main LCA consultant (add e-mail)

Please select the option applicable for the company or organisation

Member

Non-member

Non-member, would like to receive more information about membership

INVOICING INFORMATION

Applying party name + address

Contact person (add e-mail)

Specifications on invoice (if relevant)

VAT code / EIN code

APPLICATION FORM

SECTORAL AND BRANDED DATA

SCOPE

Type of project

Data information

Type of data

Sectoral data

Branded data

Number of datasets
(ingredients)

Proposed name of each ingredient

Publication preferences

Please indicate the preferences for data publication:

Publication of environmental impact values in GFLI database (LCIA - Excel format)

Aggregated data (LCI - system process level) available for commercial and research licensees

Aggregated data (LCI - system process level) available for developer licensees (e.g. calculation tooling, software integration)

Disaggregated data (LCI - unit process level) available for commercial and research licensees

Disaggregated data (LCI - unit process level) available for developer licensees (e.g. calculation tooling, software integration)

No publication (only requestable by Branded data participants)

Data collection from years:

Check the years applicable for the ingredients in scope.

If the ingredients in scope have various collection years, check the relevant years and specify for each ingredient the year(s) in the comment section.

2019

2023

Comments:

2020

2024

2021

2025

2022